My apologies for not keeping up to date on the newsletter. Here we are on the brink of getting back out to the training fields and I can't wait. Sun.....snow....sleet...snow....sun...rain... Spring make up your mind!

We've started our Novice (puppy) classes and getting ready for the 2026 season. We have the Family Fun Day and Chukar Challenge coming up in June. Before that we'll need to get the bird pen up and ready.

Our next GM meeting needs to have some positions voted for. The following positions are open and if you'd like to volunteer your time, please let us know!

The nominees are:
